Student Number:

Three marks form the BC1 Diploma mark: Date Enrolled for BC1:

- Oral Test Mark – as a % of perceived level of knowledge
- 5 Reports – convert to % (a Report does not need to come from the same module)
- 5 Practical Task – which already count out of 100 marks (choose any Task)

Bridging Course marking:

Extra research pages are optional. Test Marks are obtained orally (15 minute interview). Only one Report is marked per module chosen from any topic as on the reverse hereof. Any 5 tasks are marked – achieved anywhere.

Diploma in Min. – Tutor Report: Bridging Course – BC1

Name of Learner: _____ Student Number:

Name of Tutor: _____ Date of Report: _____

I have facilitated the applicant for the bridging course to the B.Min and therefore request the granting of the Diploma in Ministry based on the following work done:

A. Reading and Reports: (Select and mark five fields for academic reports which the Tutor marks. Do an oral test on the rest. Indicate the date on which the oral test for each was taken or when the 5 academic reports were marked. Record the marks on the reverse)

= chosen Reports

Oral test dates:

Totals: A total of about 20 to 35 pages are expected. Add up the marks to get a %. pages %

To back up this report, keep the five reports on file as material evidence to this bridging course.

C. Tasks: The student with little practical experience, is required to do 5 tasks. Average mark: %

D. Declaration: I hereby confirm that the assessed reports/essays are the work of the learner. I understand the principles according to which the above marking is performed. I have spent sufficient time going through the learner's work to make the above judgements.
